WALLY SAYS

I hate you

- ..when you keep clean and wash your hands after the toilet and before eating.
- ..when you keep your house and food clean.
- ..when you look after baby and protect her from me.

- ..when you tell other children about me.
- ..when you tell your parents and the health worker that you have seen me.

WALLY SAYS Hear my story.

WALLY ROUND

I started life as a tiny egg

.. too small for you to see me, but I grew fast and I have hundreds of friends, millions of friends, squirmy squillions of friends.

I come from a big family. My uncles and aunts do not all look like me. Some are bigger, some are smaller, some are fat, some thin. But we are all always hungry, we all love dirt and we all like to live inside people and animals where it is warm and dark and cosy.

Look after me.

I like to live inside you with my many friends and relations and their families . We grow, grow, grow. We grow bigger and fatter and hungrier. More and more of us are born. We eat the food you eat. You feel weak and sick and tired. We feel happy and hungry. You ache. We laugh.

WALLY SAYS

I love you

..when you don't wash your hands,
..when you don't clean your nails.
..when you eat dirty food,
..when you walk in dirty places with no shoes.
